HEART'S CONTENT, July 27.

The steamer Great Eastern left Sheer-ness on Saturday noon, and arrived at Beairstown Thursday morning, July 27th, and received the balance of her cable and provisions.

The other steamers accompanying the cable fleet joined the Great Eastern at Beairstown as follows: William Cary and Terrible on Friday, the Albany on the 27th, and the Medway on Tuesday, the 10th.

On Wednesday, 11th, the end of the Irish shore cable was landed from the Wm. Cary, and at 2:30 next morning the laying was successfully completed, and the cable buried in 54 fathoms—i.e., 515 ft. The distance from the telegraph office at Valentia to the cable end was 117 miles, and 294 miles of cable laid out.

On Wednesday, 11th, in the forenoon, Her Majesty's ship Raccoon arrived at Valentia, to render aid to the assistance in the laying of the cable. On Thursday, 12th, the Great Eastern, Medway, Albany, Terrible, and Raccoon arrived at Beairstown.

Religious services were held at Beairstown and prayers offered for the successful laying of the cable.

On Friday, 13th, the shore cable was connected to the main cable at the Great Eastern, and at 2:40 p.m. the cable was started for Newfoundland, and the Raccoon returned to Valentia.

The telegraph fleet sailed in the following order: Terrible ahead of the Great Eastern, on the starboard; the Medway on the port; and the Albany on the starboard quarter.

The weather was foggy with heavy rain.

The signals through the cable on board the Great Eastern were as follows: Valentia
